Alphabet Bingo

26 letters 30 boards color and ink saver

What's inside

- 26 letter cards plus a BINGO! card (pages 7-9): the letter, a picture that begins with it, and the word
- 30 boards (pages 10-39), 4 by 4, 16 letters each with its picture and word; the same 30 in black and white (pages 43-72) with black-and-white cards (pages 40-42)
- Letter list (page 3), call sheet with three orders (page 4), worked example (page 5), student alphabet page (page 6), blank markers (page 73), note home (page 74)

Set up

Print one board per player and the calling-card pages. Cut the cards apart on the dashed lines (straight cuts only). Print the blank markers page (they are plain squares, with no letter on them) or use counters, beans or dot markers. Laminate the boards to use them again.

How to play

1. Give each player a board and markers. The caller shuffles the cards or follows an order on the call sheet.
2. The caller turns a card, shows the picture and says the letter and the word: "A. Apple." Players say it back.
3. A player who has that letter covers it. The caller ticks the letter on the call sheet.
4. A row, a column, a diagonal or the four corners wins. The winner calls Bingo and reads the covered letters; check them on the call sheet. Play for a full board when there is time. There is no free space: every cell is a letter to find.

Three ways to level it

- Starting: show the card and say the word; players match the picture on their board, then name the letter with you.
- Building: say the letter name only; players find the letter, then check it with the picture.
- Ready for more: say the word and hold the card face down; players say the first sound, then find the letter.

About the pictures

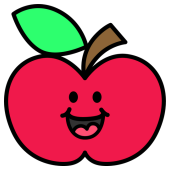

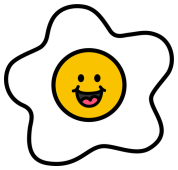

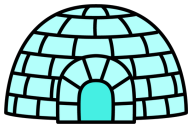

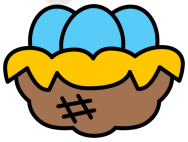

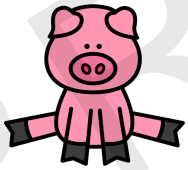

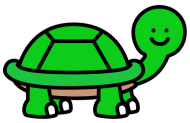

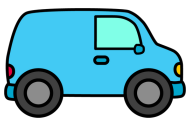

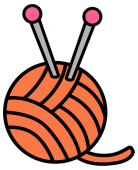

One picture for every letter, each a single thing a child can point to and name, with clip art by Whimsy Clips (credit on the last page). X is the exception: very few common words start with the letter X, so the picture is a xylophone, and the word begins with the letter, not its usual sound. Say "X, xylophone" for that card.
