

DIGRAPH & BLEND
SENTENCES + COMPREHENSION

Twenty-four decodable sentences, one per digraph or blend picture word, each with a Yes/No fact question, a Yes/No false-detail question, and Circle the Two Letters You Hear, all checked against the sentence in code. Comprehension Check, Quick Check and a Weekly Review Mix. PDF.

CHECK COMPREHENSION CHECK 1

NAME _____ DATE _____

Read the sentence. Circle Y for Yes or N for No on each question. Then circle the two letters you really hear in the bold word.

1 The shark can swim in the pond.
Can the shark swim? ☐ Y ☐ N Can the shark sing? ☐ Y ☐ N
Circle the two letters you hear at the start of shark. sh ch wh

2 A sheep can nap in the sun.
Can a sheep nap? ☐ Y ☐ N Can a sheep run? ☐ Y ☐ N
Circle the two letters you hear at the start of sheep. sh ch wh

3 The chair is red and big.
Is the chair red? ☐ Y ☐ N Is the chair wet? ☐ Y ☐ N
Letters at the start of chair? wh ch ck

QUICK QUICK CHECK 1

NAME _____ DATE _____

A fast daily warm-up on today's four sentences (page 8). Circle Y or N, or circle the letters — no writing.

1 Can the shark swim? ☐ Y ☐ N
Can the shark sing? ☐ Y ☐ N
Letters at the start of shark? sh wh ch

2 Can a sheep nap? ☐ Y ☐ N
Can a sheep run? ☐ Y ☐ N
Letters at the start of sheep? wh sh ch

3 Is the chair red? ☐ Y ☐ N
Is the chair wet? ☐ Y ☐ N
Letters at the start of chair? wh ch ck

WEEKLY WEEKLY REVIEW MIX

Once a week: eight sentences pulled from across the whole pack, not in their original order. One question each, some fact, some false.

5 The chick can run and hop.
Can the chick run? ☐ Y ☐ N

19 The dragon can run and hop.
Can the dragon run? ☐ Y ☐ N

2 A sheep can nap in the sun.
Can a sheep run? ☐ Y ☐ N

14 I can see a red blossom.
Can I see a nest? ☐ Y ☐ N

9 The clock is on the box.
Is the clock on the box? ☐ Y ☐ N

23 The spider can spin a web.
Can the spider spin? ☐ Y ☐ N

The digraph pictures every sentence and letters question in this pack is built around — the same audited word bank this store's Digraph and Blend Picture Worksheets uses. Every word here has a real, unambiguous picture in both the Noto and Fluent sets.

The sentence-level comprehension step for a student who has moved from single CVC words to digraphs and blends: the same short, decodable sentence this store already builds, but each one is built around one sh/ch/wh/ck/ng/th digraph or bl/cr/dr/fr/sp/nd blend word, with real questions to answer about it.

THREE STEPS

- 1 Read the sentence bank
Twenty-four decodable sentences, each built only from CVC words, this store's Fry-100 sight words and one digraph or blend picture word, are listed on the Sentence Index (page 5) and pictured on the Picture Key (page 6).
- 2 Pick the format for the day
A detailed Comprehension Check, a fast Quick Check, or the once-a-week Review Mix — always the same twenty-four sentences.
- 3 Mark it and send it home
Date each sentence on the tracker (page 23), roll the class up on page 24, and send a copy home on the family page (page 25). A filled example is on page 27.

Everything inside (30 pages)

- 24 decodable sentences, checked in code against this store's CVC, Fry-100 and digraph/blend word banks, one per pictured digraph or blend word
- 3 comprehension & phonics questions per sentence — Yes/No fact, Yes/No false detail, Circle the Two Letters You Hear — every answer checked in code
- 3 formats: Comprehension Check, Quick Check, Weekly Review Mix
- 2-page answer key, generated from the same data as every question
- 1 tracker, 1 class grid (type-in or print), 1 family page, 1 helper card, 1 filled example, 1 phrase bank, and a binder cover with tabs

How to read a page

Page 4 shows a sample item and how every answer is checked against its own sentence. The dots on the name line are the level code, not a word. The Sentence Index (5) lists every page.

Where each format lives

The Comprehension Check (pages 8–13) is the full version below. Quick Check (pages 14–19) prints the same three questions as single-line rows for a faster daily pass. The Weekly Review Mix (page 20) pulls eight fact/false questions from across the whole bank, out of order, once a week.

THE PARTS OF A COMPREHENSION CHECK ITEM

1 The shark can swim in the pond.

Can the shark swim?

☐ Y ☐ N

Can the shark sing?

☐ Y ☐ N

Circle the two letters you hear at the start of shark.

1 The number

Every sentence keeps the same number everywhere it appears — on the Sentence Index, the tracker and the answer key.

The two Yes/No questions

The first asks a fact that is really in the sentence (answer: Yes). The second names a detail that is NOT in the sentence (answer: No) — both checked in code against the sentence's own words.

The letters question

Three letter choices: the digraph or blend really heard, plus two other codes from the same digraph or blend family — never the target itself.

One sentence, checked question by question (sentence 1)

“The shark can swim in the pond.” — the fact question (“Can the shark swim?”) asks only about words the sentence itself contains, so the answer is Yes. The false question (“Can the shark sing?”) names “sing,” a word this sentence never uses (it says swim), so the answer is No. The letters question offers sh (the digraph really heard in shark) against two other digraph codes that are never correct here.

Why three questions, not one

A single Yes/No question can be guessed correctly half the time. Pairing a true fact with a false detail, then a letters check that needs no comprehension at all, is three independent ways to see whether the sentence was decoded, understood and heard correctly.

The type-in fields

Open the file in any PDF reader and click a name line, a tracker cell or a family-page box to type into it, then save. The activity pages themselves are always pencil-and-circle work — not a slideshow or word-processor file.

All twenty-four sentences carry three questions each: a Yes/No fact, a Yes/No false detail, and Circle the Two Letters You Hear. The Weekly Review Mix (page 20) draws eight of them, out of order. The page number prints in the footer of every page.

DECODABLE SENTENCES AT HOME

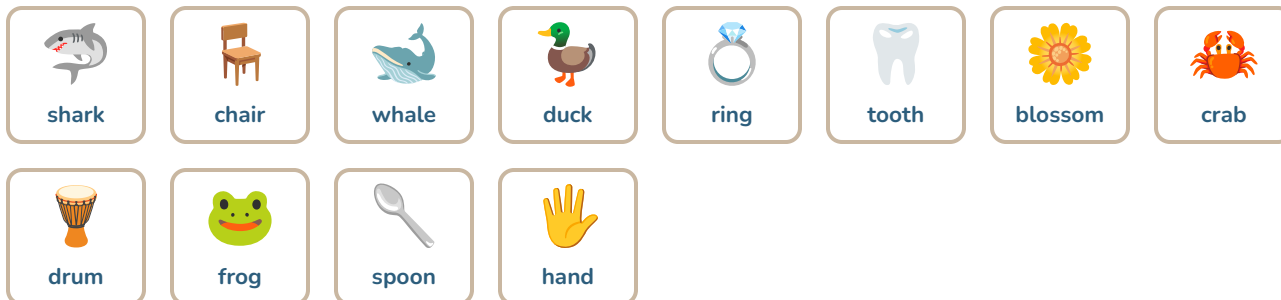

STUDENT

WEEK OF

THIS WEEK WE PRACTICED THESE SENTENCES (NUMBERS FROM THE TRACKER)

How to help at home, in three steps

- Have your child read the sentence out loud first, sound by sound if needed. Every word in it is one they have already met.
- Ask the two questions out loud: one is true, one is not. Have your child point to the words in the sentence that prove the answer.
- Say the bold word slowly together and ask which two letters make the digraph or blend sound.
- Keep it short. Three or four sentences is plenty for one sitting.

Copy one sentence from this week below, and write one question your child can answer about it.

How to read it

Started 18 of 24. Fact 17 of 18, false 16 of 18, letters 15 of 18 — correct. Fact miss: 10. Letters miss: 3, 12, 16 (within-family, never the target). Every number is from the table above.

The family note this tracker would produce

“This week Devon answered questions on 18 sentences: strong on fact and false, still practicing the letters check.” — every fact in it is a row of the table above.

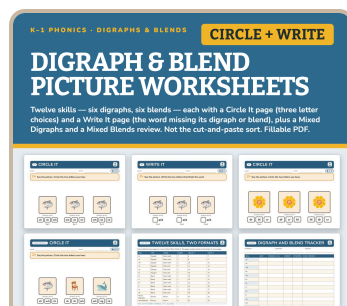

THANK YOU FOR USING THIS RESOURCE

Everything here was built for the teacher who has thirty minutes of planning time and a student who needs to prove a sentence was really understood and really heard, not just decoded. If this helped, leaving feedback on TPT helps other teachers find it.
