Escape Room Template

Start here type in your own room, then print

What's inside

- 12 puzzle pages for two rooms, Room A (pages 13-18) and Room B (pages 19-24): a secret code, a sort, a missing number, a word scramble, a riddle and a fill-in
- 12 clue cards on 2 sheets (pages 8 and 9) and 6 hint cards (page 10)
- For children: a mission letter (7), a lock and code sheet (11), a code door page (12), a passport (27) and a certificate (28)
- For you: a plan page (4), an invented example room with its code worked out (5) and filled clue cards (6), two answer keys (25 and 26), ideas and clue starters (29) and a note home (30)

Which page for which job

Job	Page	You type
Plan the room	4	Story, mission, where each puzzle hides
Tell the story	7	The mission letter children read first
Send children around	8, 9	12 clue cards, 3 lines each
A puzzle for a lock	13-24	The puzzle itself and how to find its digit
Help a stuck team	10	One hint per lock
Check answers	25, 26	Answers, digits and the final code

Three steps

1. Look at the example room (pages 5 and 6), then plan yours on page 4.
2. Type a puzzle on each puzzle page, a clue on each card and the answers on the key. Save a copy of the file.
3. Print, hide the clue cards, and hand each team a mission letter, a lock sheet and a passport.

Clue Cards, Filled In

This example is invented writing for The Missing Hamster. Yours are blank lines to type on.

1 Clue 1

Hank is missing! Look at the wall by the door. Find the secret message. Crack it!

2 Clue 2

You found Hank's food bowl!

Sort the words. The group with the most is your clue.

3 Clue 3

The number door is by the calendar. Fill in the gaps to count the steps.

4 Clue 4

A scrambled sign hangs on the reading shelf. Put the letters in the right order.

5 Clue 5

Hank left a riddle in the art corner. Read it, then tell the helper the answer.

6 Clue 6

Almost there! The last page is in the book bag. Fill in the blank to open the box.
