Terms of Use

Please read before you print your first page.

One classroom license

- This file is for one teacher or specialist and that person's students.
- Please do not share it, post it online, or sell it. Extra licenses are on the product page.

This is a fillable PDF

- Open it in a PDF reader (Adobe Acrobat Reader, Preview, or your browser), click into a box, type, and Save As once per student. Or print any page and write by hand.
- Every page prints on a standard home or school printer.
- It works offline. No account, no subscription, no internet connection needed.

Student work

A finished page carries a child's name and writing. Keep it the way you keep other student work.

What this is, and is not

A writing, craft and talking activity for friendship week. It is not counseling, a social skills program, a test or a screening, and it does not replace your school's own guidance or the advice of a school counselor.

A Filled-In Recipe Card (Invented Student)

"Maya" is an invented student. This is a sample of a Level K-1 card so you can show children what to do.

My name: Maya (invented)

Recipe for a Great Friend

Ingredients

1. 1 cup of kindness
2. 2 spoons of sharing
3. a pinch of fun
4. a big scoop of smiles

Directions

First, stir in the kindness.

Then add sharing.

Last, sprinkle on the smiles.

Dear family

This week we are writing friendship recipes. We think about what a great friend is made of: kindness, sharing, trust, hugs, fun, honesty and smiles. Your child brought home a kindness hearts checklist. Please check a heart each time you see a kind act at home.

Our class recipe has _____ We shared recipes on _____

Try this at home

- Make a friendship recipe together. Ask: what are the ingredients? What are the steps?
- Ask: who was kind to you today? Who were you kind to?
- Read your child's recipe card out loud and tell them which ingredient you like best.
