WHY A STRIP, NOT A BOARD

A board holds a picture that changes; a routine like this does not change from one cold-weather morning to the next, so the whole point is to show the fixed order at a glance. The number is printed on every card too, so cutting the strip apart never loses the order.

PRINTING AND SIZING

The strip above is a quick reference; the same steps print as full 2-inch cut-apart cards on the pages that follow, at the same size so a spare from the blank-card page (page 8) always matches.

A NOTE ON THE BOOTS PICTURE

This set's boot picture is a hiking boot — neither art set has a separate snow-boot or rain-boot picture. The word "Boots" carries the general category; if a different boot picture would read better to your student, a blank card (page 8) is the fix.

WHERE THIS POSTS

By the coat closet, cubby area, or classroom door — wherever a student gathers outdoor gear before heading out. Post it once; it stays there through the cold-weather months.

IF A PICTURE READS DIFFERENTLY TO YOUR STUDENT

Use a blank card (page 8) instead: type or write the word your student uses, and draw or glue on a picture that names it for them. The numbered strip (page 6) still shows where the replacement card belongs in the order.

HOW THE TAGS ON EACH PAGE WORK

Every page carries a small tag in its top corner, the same word used above: Strip the whole sequence in reading order, Cards a sheet of cut-apart numbered pictures, Log the data sheet, Tracker the weekly roll-up, Example the filled-in sample, Notes a page meant to be sent out or handed off, and Reference everything else you read rather than fill in.

Start Here — Three Steps

Print and cut

Print the strip (page 6) and the numbered cards (page 7) from the color set on cardstock, or the ink-saver set (pages 10–11) on plain paper. Laminate, cut on the dashed lines, velcro or ring as needed.

Blank cards for a step the set does not cover are on page 8: type the word, print, cut.

Post it, follow the numbers

Post the strip where the routine happens, or hand the cards over one at a time in numbered order. Say the printed word as each step happens (page 19).

The how-to page (13) has the rest: what to do if a step is skipped, and why the Boots card uses a hiking-boot picture.

Log it, roll it up, send it home

One row on the log (page 14) each time the routine runs: one letter per step — independently, with a prompt, or not completed.

Total the week on the roll-up (page 15) and dot the graph. Send the family page (page 17) home when the strip is new; the hand-off page (page 18) goes with the cards to any other adult.

WHAT THIS FILE IS

A fillable PDF: 5 numbered, cut-apart sequence cards for one cold-weather getting-ready routine, plus a strip view, in two art sets, with type-in fields on the log, the roll-up, the family page, the hand-off page and the blank cards. It works offline with no account or subscription and prints the same on every machine.

WHAT THIS FILE IS NOT

It is not an editable online slideshow or word-processor document, and it is not a safety procedure or a behavior plan. It sets no temperature or coat-required rule, and it supplies no prompt hierarchy, fading schedule or mastery rule; it promises no outcome. It shows a student the order of one routine and counts what happened.

WHICH PAGE, WHEN

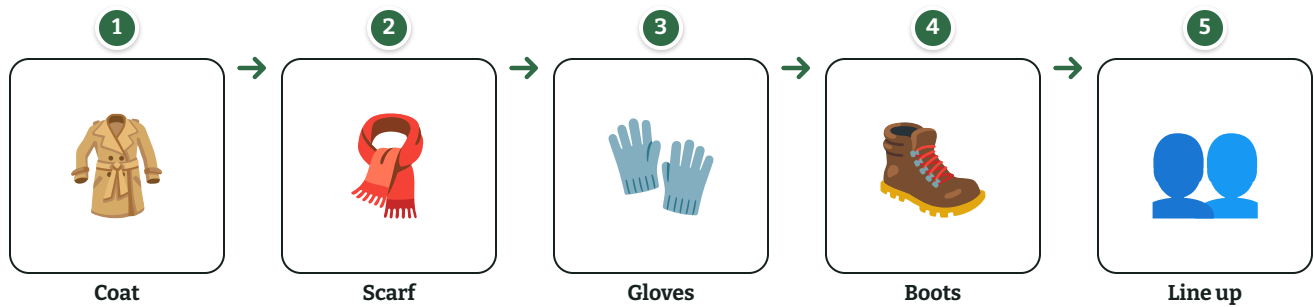

YOUR SITUATION	GO TO
A student learning one everyday routine in order	Strip, page 6
A student who does better with one card at a time	Cut-apart cards, page 7

The IEP meeting or a family conference	Roll-up and graph, page 15; example, page 16

IF SOMETHING DOES NOT WORK, AND WHERE THIS FILE LIVES

A field will not hold my typing. Open the file in Adobe Acrobat Reader (free) or Preview, not a browser tab. A picture reads as a different word to my student. Use a blank card for that word; the Ask a Question tab on the product page reaches me, and a fix is a free update. Confidentiality: a filled-in log, roll-up or example-style note is a student record — initials only on anything that leaves your hands, first name only on the family page.

STRIP Sequence Strip (Color)

The routine, in order, at a glance. This is the color set; the same strip in the ink-saver set is on page 11. The numbered cut-apart cards are on the pages that follow.

PRINTING AND SIZING

Cardstock holds up to daily handling better than plain paper; laminating adds durability for a card that travels on a ring or a lanyard. Every card in this file prints at the same 2-inch size, in this set and the ink-saver one, so a spare from the blank-card page (page 8) always matches.

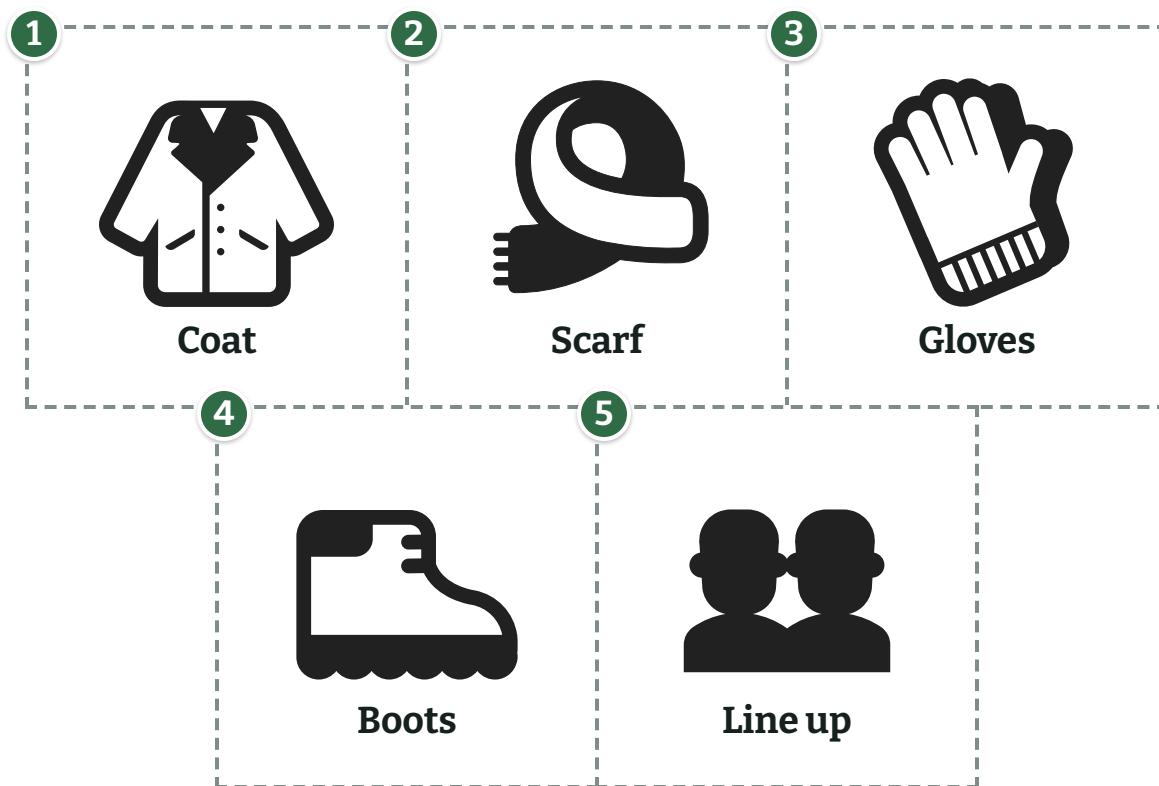

IF A PICTURE READS DIFFERENTLY TO YOUR STUDENT

Use a blank card (page 8) instead: type or write the word your student uses, and draw or glue on a picture that names it for them. The numbered strip (page 6) still shows where the replacement card belongs in the order.

Completion Log

One row every time the routine runs. It counts one thing per step: whether help was needed.

WHAT ONE ROW COUNTS

One row is one time the routine ran, start to finish.
Mark every step with a letter, even a step that went fine — a row of all I is useful data too.

TOTALING THE WEEK

Count every 1 across the table for the week; the roll-up (page 15) turns that count into a percent.

Weekly Roll-Up and Graph

One row and one dot per week, from the log. Eight weeks across, 0 to 100 percent.

PERCENT OF STEPS COMPLETED INDEPENDENTLY · ONE DOT PER WEEK, THEN DRAW THE LINE

FIGURING THE PERCENT

Count the I marks on the log (page 14) for the week and divide by the total steps run: each time logged is 5 steps. I marks divided by total steps, times 100, rounded to the nearest whole number.

BRINGING THIS PAGE TO A MEETING

A rising line says more steps are being completed without a prompt; the criterion field above is where your team’s own number goes, so every dot is read against the same line. This page counts what is plotted; it does not decide what a flat line means.

 EXAMPLE

Filled Example

 SAMPLE · INVENTED STUDENT

Every number in the read-out is re-counted straight from the tables above; LK means “see the log for initials” and is not itself a field value.

Theo is invented, and so is every mark on this page. One morning on the log, then three weeks on the roll-up, to show how the pages read once real marks are on them.

The log, one morning (page 14)

DATE	1 COAT	2 SCARF	3 GLOVES	4 BOOTS	5 LINE UP	INITIALS
This morning	I	I	I	P	I	LK

The roll-up, three weeks (page 15)

#	WEEK OF	TIMES LOGGED	STEPS INDEPENDENT	PERCENT INDEPENDENT	NOTES
1	9/8	5	17	68%	–
2	9/15	5	20	80%	–
3	9/22	5	24	96%	–

READING THE NUMBERS

This morning’s row: 4 of 5 steps completed independently, one P (Boots needed a prompt). The weeks: 17 of 25 steps (68 percent), then 20 of 25 (80 percent), then 24 of 25 (96 percent) — a line rising week on week, which is what “needing fewer prompts over time” looks like on paper. Every percent is that week’s own independent count divided by its total steps run.

A LINE THIS SHEET COULD WRITE

“Theo completed 24 of 25 getting ready for outside steps independently the week of 9/22 (96 percent), up from 17 of 25 the week of 9/8.”

HOW THE GRAPH WOULD LOOK

Three dots on the roll-up graph (page 15) at 68, 80 and 96, joined by a line that rises. The one P in the row above shows the log tracks WHICH step needed a prompt, not just how many.

WHAT THIS EXAMPLE IS NOT

One invented student’s morning and three weeks. It sets no typical rate, predicts nothing about a real student, and the criterion field would hold whatever Theo’s team wrote — not a number this file supplies.

THE ONE PROMPT IN THIS EXAMPLE

This morning’s single P landed on Boots. That is a coincidence of this invented morning, not a pattern this file claims — a real log might show the prompt on any step, or none at all.

WHAT A CASE MANAGER COULD BRING TO A MEETING

The three roll-up rows above (page 15), read alongside the one filled log row (page 14), are enough to show a trend and one concrete example of what a logged morning looks like — without needing to bring the whole stack of daily logs to the table.
