KINDNESS NOTES TEMPLATE

Editable cut-apart notes - grades K-5

Terms of Use

Please read before you print your first page.

One classroom license

- This file is for one classroom: one teacher and the students in that room.
- Please do not share it, post it online, or sell it.
- Extra licenses for a team or a school are available on the product page.

This is a fillable PDF. It is NOT a slide deck or a document file.

- Open it in Adobe Acrobat Reader, Preview, or a web browser. Click a line and type.
- Save a copy under a new name before you close it, so the names you typed stay in that copy.
- Or print it and write by hand. Every page still reads in black and white.

Print at 100 percent

Turn off fit to page and shrink to fit so every note keeps its size. Use cardstock for the note sheets if you have it. Cut on the solid lines.

Student work

A note carries a student's name and a kind thing they did or received. Keep the tracker with your other classroom records.

What this is

Kind notes for your own classroom, to use any time: for a kindness week, or all year. Your school's rules for behavior stay separate.

The example students on pages 12 and 13 are invented and say so on the page.

How to Use This

Four short steps, and what this set is and is not.

Type or write

- Click a line and type the name, the message and the date.
- Or print the page and write on the line.
- A line you leave empty prints empty.

Print

- Print at 100 percent.
- Cardstock keeps the notes stiff; copy paper works.
- Use the black-and-white sheet (page 7) to save ink.

Cut

- Cut on the solid lines.
- Six notes or eight labels a sheet. Each cut is one straight line.
- Start with the cut across, then down.

Share and count

- Put the notes in a mailbox made with a label from page 10.
- Tally the week on page 11.
- A filled example is on pages 12 and 13.

Two ways to use a mailbox

- One box for the whole class. Notes go in, and you hand them out at the end of the day.
- One folder or envelope for each student. Notes go in the folder with the student's name on the label.
- Read each note before it goes to the student.

What this is, and what it is not

- Kind notes a teacher or a student writes by hand or types, then cuts apart and shares.
- Not a grade, not a behavior plan, and not a school policy.
- This is a fillable PDF. It is NOT a slide deck or a document file.
- Every student in the examples is invented.

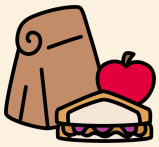

Our rule (your team writes it)

Write how your class uses the notes, or what your school's rule says, on the lines below. This set does not state one.

Example: Class Tracker

One invented week. Every name on this page is invented. The blank tracker is on page 11.

Student	Gave						Got
	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Total	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Total
Jordan (invented)	1	0	1	0	1	3	1	0	1	0	1	3
Sam (invented)	0	1	1	0	1	3	1	0	0	1	1	3
Priya (invented)	1	0	0	1	1	3	0	1	1	0	1	3
Ava (invented)	1	0	1	0	1	3	0	1	0	1	0	2
Leo (invented)	0	1	0	1	0	2	1	0	1	0	1	3
Class	3	2	3	2	4	14	3	2	3	2	4	14

Check the tracker against the notes

- Monday has 3 notes, the same three blue notes as page 12: Jordan to Sam, Priya to Leo, Ava to Jordan.
- The week has 14 student notes. The five Gave totals add to 14, and so do the five Got totals and the five day totals.
- Every student gave at least 2 notes and got at least 2. Fri had the most notes, 4.

Talk about it (invented)

Look for a student who has given few notes or got few. The tracker says what happened, not why. A teacher note to that student can come next.

Next week, your plan (blank)

Pick one starter to use next week, and write the sentence you will say.

_____

Three things you can ask at home

- What kind thing did you do this week?
- Who was kind to you?
- What is one kind thing you will do tomorrow?

Before you send it

- Check the names. Each note carries one student's name only.
- Keep a copy with your tracker for the week.
- Send it home the same week, while the note still means something.
