How to Use It: Five Short Routines

Each one takes a few minutes. Pick the ones that fit your day.

1. Meet the parts

- Show page 5. Point to the who, then the does what, then the where. Read the silly sentence together.
- Ask: who is it? what do they do? where are they?

2. Sort

- Children cut the 12 mixed cards (page 7 or 8) and glue each one in its column on page 6.
- Each card says only its own word and picture. Children say which part it is.

3. Build and giggle

- Cut one set of who, does what and where cards (pages 9 to 14). Mix them, pick one of each, and glue a silly sentence on page 15.
- Page 16 adds two writing lines under each sentence. Read every sentence out loud.

4. Write

- Page 17 gives pictures to copy, page 18 gives words, page 19 gives a blank page for the child's own ideas.
- Children can start on any page and move up.

5. Check and draw

- Pages 20 to 22 check that children can tell the parts. Pages 23 and 24 turn a silly sentence into a picture.
- Mark the check-off sheet on page 26.
