Wanted Poster Template

Start here type in or write by hand full page and 2-up

What's inside

- 9 full-page posters and 10 half-page posters (two to a sheet), each with a WANTED header, a portrait box to draw in, description lines, a last-seen line and a reward box
- Four versions: a character from a book (full page 12-13, 2-up 20), a kind friend (full page 14-15, 2-up 21), a person from history (full page 16-17, 2-up 22) and a blank poster for any topic (full page 18-19, 2-up 23)
- 3 filled examples with invented writing (pages 5-7) and a parts-of-a-poster page (4)
- For writing: feeling and trait words (8), a kind friend word bank (9), 12 last-seen places (10) and a planning page (11)
- Ink saver: one full-page and one 2-up blank poster in black and white (pages 24 and 25)
- For you: how the type-in lines work (3), a checklist for children (26), ideas for using it (27) and a note home (28)

Which page for which job

Job	Poster to print	Why
Character study	Character, page 12 or 13	Name, trait words and proof from the book
Kindness lesson	Kind friend, page 14 or 15	What a kind friend can do and says
Social studies	History, page 16 or 17	Known for, when and where, why we remember
Any other topic	Blank, page 18 or 19	Looks like, wanted for, last seen
Fast or small	2-up, pages 20-23	Two posters on one sheet, bigger portrait box

Three steps

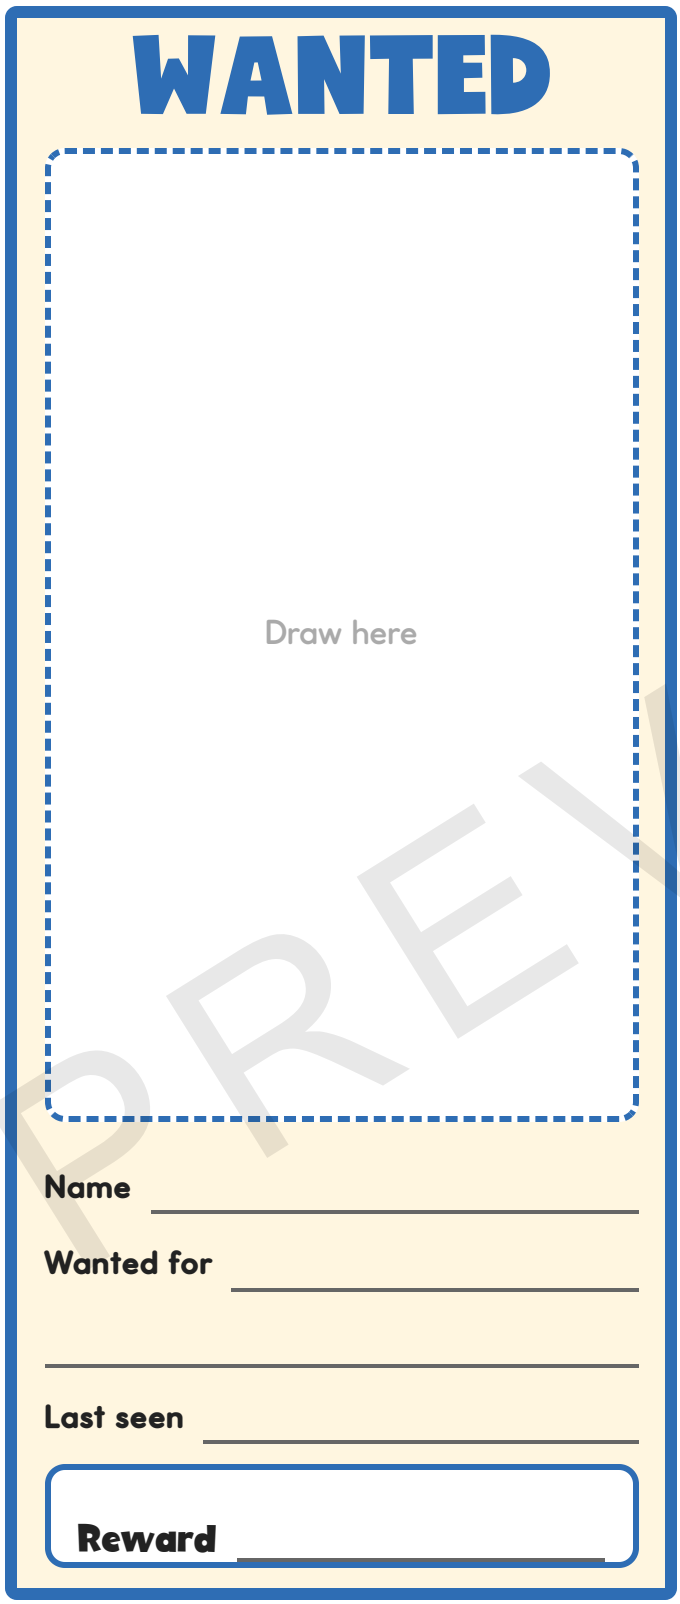

1. Show a filled example (pages 5-7) and name the parts together (page 4).
2. Children plan on page 11, then print a poster and draw the portrait. You can type words into a poster first for a child who needs a model.
3. Check it with page 26. Hang the posters on a wall or put them in a class book.

A Wanted Poster Example

This example is invented. It shows the character poster with an old tale, The Three Little Pigs.

WANTED

Book The Three Little Pigs

Name The Big Bad Wolf

Wanted for Huffing and puffing and blowing down two houses.

Trait words sneaky, loud, hungry

Proof He tricked the pigs. He said, Little pig, let me come in!

Last seen At the top of the brick chimney

Reward A safe home for the pigs

PREVIEW

The poster names the character and the book, gives 3 trait words, and backs them with 2 lines of proof from the story. The portrait box holds a picture here; yours is empty for a child to draw in.

A Wanted Poster Example

This example is invented. It was written by an imagined student for a kindness week.

WANTED

a kind friend

Must be able to Share the markers.

Listen when I talk.

Ask me to play.

Says Do you want to play with us?

That is okay. Try again!

Last seen At recess by the swings

I will say hello to a new friend.

Reward A new friend

A kind friend poster lists 3 things a kind friend can do, 2 things a kind friend says, where a kind friend was last seen, and one promise: I will.

Type or write the plan, then send this page home with the poster.

For the family

Today we made a WANTED poster in class. Our poster is about:

Thank you for helping your child practice writing at home!

PREVIEW

Try it at home

- Fold a sheet of paper in half. Write WANTED across the top.
- Draw a picture of a favorite character in a big box.
- Write what the character is wanted for, and where it was last seen.
- Make up a reward. Read the poster out loud to someone at home.
