WINTER BINGO

PICTURE BOARDS & CALLING CARDS

30 BOARDS

Bright Path Sped

Winter Bingo

16 picture words 30 boards in 2 sets picture and word, picture only

What's inside

- 16 calling cards (pages 7-8): one picture, its number and its word
- 30 boards, 3 by 3, 9 pictures each, in two sets: picture and word (pages 9-38), picture only (pages 39-68). Board 7 is the same nine pictures in both sets.
- Word list (page 3), call sheet with three orders (page 4), worked example (page 5), student word page (page 6), 20 cover-up markers (page 69), recording sheet (page 70), note home (page 71)

Set up

Print one board per player (picture and word, or picture only) and the calling-card pages. Cut the cards apart on the dashed lines (straight cuts only). Print the cover-up markers page or use beans, buttons or counters. Laminate the boards to use them again next year.

How to play

1. Give each player a board and cover-up markers. The caller shuffles the cards or follows an order on the call sheet.
2. The caller turns a card, says the word and shows the picture. Players say it back.
3. A player who has that picture covers it. The caller ticks the word on the call sheet.
4. A row, a column, a diagonal or the four corners wins. The winner calls Bingo and reads the words; check them on the call sheet. Play for a full board when there is time. There is no free space: every cell is a picture to find.

Three ways to level it

- Starting: say the word and show the picture; players cover by matching the picture.
- Building: say the word only, then show the picture after a count of three.
- Ready for more: give a clue ("You wear it on your hands in the snow") and let players name the picture before they cover it.

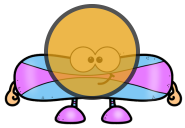

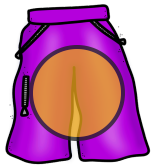

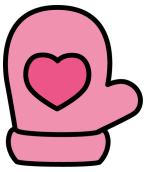

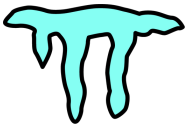

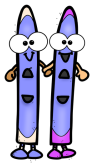

About the pictures

16 winter words, each a single picture a young child can name, with clip art by Educlips and Whimsy Clips (credits on the last page). Every word is one thing a child can point to and say.

How a Game Goes

An invented game on Board 5: 6 calls, and the top row fills on call 6.

8  penguin	12  snowboard	15  pants
16  fireplace	2  coat	6  mittens
7  mug	4  icicle	11  skis

The 6 calls

1. 12 snowboard
2. 3 ice
3. 10 skate
4. 14 sock
5. 8 penguin
6. 15 pants

Three of the 6 (in bold) are on Board 5, all in its top row, so it is covered after call 6. The other 3 are not on this board at all. The player says Bingo, reads the three words, and the caller finds all three ticked on the call sheet.

Ways to win

Pick one before you start and say it: a row, a column, a diagonal, the four corners, or a full board for a long game.

Calling tips

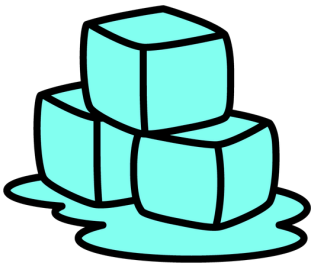

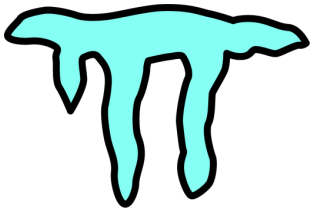

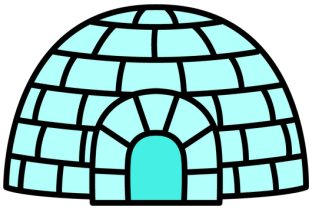

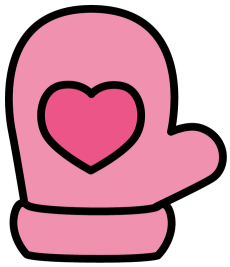

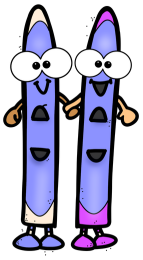

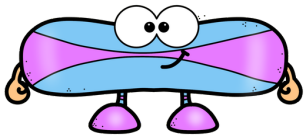

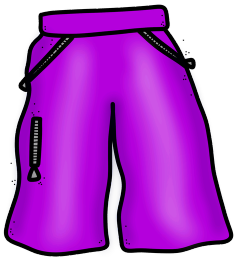

- Hold the picture up for the players who need it and keep it up until every marker is down.
- Say the word, then have the group say it back before the next card.
- Each card is on 16 to 17 of the 30 boards, so every call moves most of the room.
