Draw and Write

One kit of draw-and-write paper: a picture box and primary lines in four layouts, so a child can draw first and write second, with the log, class grid and family note around it. Every student page is pencil and crayon work, so no student page needs scissors or glue.

THREE STEPS

1 Pick a layout

Four layouts, from one big picture to a three-box story. The chart below says which page for which child. Every page has the same primary lines: a solid top line, a dashed midline and a solid baseline.

2 Hand it over

The child draws in the box, then writes on the lines. Nothing here is a prompt: the child picks what to draw. On 9 pages a sentence starter is already printed (“At the end”, “First,” “I can”, “I have”, “I like”, “I see”, “Last,” “My favorite”, “Next,” “One day”, “Then”, “This is”, “Today I”). Click any line in a PDF reader to type a starter or a word of your own before you print.

3 Log it, send it home

Date each page on the log (page 17), roll the group up on page 19, and send the family note (page 20). A filled example is on page 18.

WHICH PAGE, WHEN

WHEN...	USE...
One big picture, then one sentence	Picture on Top, pages 4, 5, 6, 7
Picture and several lines side by side	Side by Side, pages 8, 9, 10
One sentence for each of two pictures	Two Pictures, pages 11, 12, 13
Telling a story in order, three or more sentences	Story Strip, pages 14, 15, 16
Writing a note home	Family note, page 20 · phrase bank, page 21

Everything inside (24 pages)

- 13 student pages in 4 layouts, 22 picture boxes and 63 ruled lines in all
- 9 pages with a sentence starter already printed, the rest left blank
- 1 writing log (13 pages), 1 class grid, 1 filled example
- 1 family note with three ways to help at home, 1 phrase bank
- 1 binder cover, 6 divider tabs and a spine label, cut along the dashed lines

What is not in here

There are no prompt pictures and no topic lists, so the child draws what they choose. How many sentences to ask for, and when, is your call: the log has a blank for it and your district’s own writing expectations decide the rest.

How to fill this in

THIS MONTH WE ARE WORKING ON

How to read it

Marcus L. has finished 8 of 13 pages and written 12 sentences in all: 4 on Picture on Top (4 of 4 pages done), 4 on Side by Side (2 of 3), 4 on Two Pictures (2 of 3) and 0 on Story Strip (0 of 3). Next up is row 7, My Page. Every number comes from the table above.

One page as the child wrote it (invented)

I like my dog. (row 2, Draw It, the sentence after the printed starter)

THANK YOU FOR USING THIS RESOURCE

Everything here was built for the teacher who has a table of children who each need a different amount of room to draw and to write. If this helped, leaving feedback on TPT helps other teachers find it.
